

Drop of Sun Studios specializes in music recording, mixing, and production. The creative atmosphere is unparalleled in comfort, service, and inspiration. We are located at 821 Haywood Road, Asheville, NC 28806.

The ideal intern will be:

- Friendly, welcoming and professional - Studio etiquette and interpersonal skills are the most important requirements of this position. Technical skill is not necessary at first to be a good intern.
- Self-motivated and dependable - You should make good use of your time with or without constant supervision. If you are onsite, you should be productive at all times and anticipate the needs of the studio and its guests.
- Interested in problem solving - You will be expected to assess situations with an eager and open mind. Being organized, autonomous and interested in finding creative solutions to problems on your own will be critical.
- Dedicated - This opportunity and position is incredibly competitive. By going above and beyond, you will get more out of your internship.
- Enthusiastic about new learning opportunities - There are many facets of this business. Everything you are asked to do is important and an opportunity to demonstrate dedication.

The duration of this internship position is tailored to the individual. Typically, 30 days, 60 days, or 90 days. You will be primarily focused on housekeeping (cleaning, making coffee, doing dishes, etc). In exchange for going above and beyond demonstrating dedication, helpful contribution, and stellar studio etiquette, you will receive real world skills and hands-on studio experience.

To apply, please send an email to dropofsunstudios@gmail.com (subject line: Internship Application) that includes a formal resume, relevant references with contact information, and a cover letter that explains how this position fits into your broader goals and interests.

We wish you luck and look forward to hearing from you!

–

Dark Horse Institute: What Does It Take To Be A Great Studio Intern?

Sonic Scoop: Things You Shouldn't Do When Interning At A Recording Studio